Mon Isaiah 49:1-6 The speaker in verses 1 and 2 (and again in verses 5 and 6) is Jesus, while the speaker in verses 3 and 4 is Isaiah. It figures, for Jesus is the Light of the Gentiles, salvation unto the ends of the Earth, and Jehovah's Son (5). Moreover, God wanted ancient Israelites to know that He had prepared Jesus deliberately and generously (1-2) to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the preserved ones of Israel (6). God is generous!

Looking Ahead...

- ✠ Jan. 10: Orlando Service 8 am
- ✠ Jan. 13: Zoom Bible Class 6:30 pm
- ✠ Jan. 17: Masks-on Service 9 am

Tues Mark 1:4-11 takes us to the Jordan valley, and we watch from the side-lines while John baptizes

Jesus. Now, for what purpose or function was Jesus baptized? Well, a) the Spirit's descent, b) God the Father's blessing, and c) the baptism all work together for Jesus' inaugural ceremony as God's chosen Servant for the public good.

Wed Acts 16:25-34 We see a deeper meaning—when other doors were opened and other chains loosed, for those miracles opened human hearts to God. Which led to the question, "What must I do to be saved?" and to the answer, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ!" Next came a Bible class (32), then conversion (between verses 32 and 33) marked by Christian baptism and humble service given lovingly to God's spokesmen (33-34).

Thurs Psalm 2 provides perspective as our generation slides downhill—and that's hardly due to the pandemic. "Why?" is a good question. For what good reason do people rebel against God and choose their own downfall? None at all! Now then, since Jehovah is still God, and Jesus is still His Son, dominant over Earth (8-9), it would be better for humans to seek His favor (10-12).

Fri Matthew 3:13-17 For what good purpose did Jesus meet up with Baptizer John? Since Jesus was sinless (14), remission of sins couldn't be the point of His baptism. Rather, this baptism would fulfill a specific and special factor in God's great salvation enterprise; we see that the time had arrived for Jesus to become inaugurated into His public ministry, with Holy Spirit support and the Father's benediction. Timing is important in everything.

Sat Acts 19:33-41 There was/is nothing trivial about Christian witnessing, especially when the apostles were under attack by religious fanatics who staged a street riot (33-34). Since the timing was right, God made use of a city official (even though he was an idolater) to put a lid on it. He presented the fair assessment that the missionaries were not criminals, and if someone wanted to press charges, lawyers and courts were available. Evidently nobody put God to the test—and we come full circle back to Psalm 2.

PRE-SERVICE DEVOTION

Psalm 72:1-11

<sup>1</sup> Truly God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart. <sup>2</sup> But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled, my steps had nearly slipped. <sup>3</sup> For I was envious of the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. <sup>4</sup> For they have no pangs until death; their bodies are fat and sleek. <sup>5</sup> They are not in trouble as others are; they are not stricken like the rest of mankind. <sup>6</sup> Therefore pride is their necklace; violence covers them as a garment. <sup>7</sup> Their eyes swell out through fatness; their hearts overflow with follies. <sup>8</sup> They scoff and speak with malice; loftily they threaten oppression. <sup>9</sup> They set their mouths against the heavens, and their tongue struts through the earth. <sup>10</sup> Therefore his people turn back to them, and find no fault in them. <sup>11</sup> And they say, "How can God know? Is there knowledge in the Most High?"

SERMON – Matthew 2:1-12 Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup> saying, "Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we saw his star when it rose and have come to worship him." <sup>3</sup> When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him; <sup>4</sup> and assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. <sup>5</sup> They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it is written by the prophet: <sup>6</sup> "'And you, O Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.'" <sup>7</sup> Then Herod summoned the wise men secretly and ascertained from them what time the star had appeared. <sup>8</sup> And he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him, bring me word, that I too may come and worship him." <sup>9</sup> After listening to the king, they went on their way. And behold, the star that they had seen when it rose went before them until it came to rest over the place where the child was. <sup>10</sup> When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly

EPIPHANY

EPISTLE READING – Ephesians 3:1-12 (NIV) For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles-- <sup>2</sup> Surely you have heard about the administration of God's grace that was given to me for you, <sup>3</sup> that is, the mystery made known to me by revelation, as I have already written briefly. <sup>4</sup> In reading this, then, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, <sup>5</sup> which was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to God's holy apostles and prophets. <sup>6</sup> This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members together of one body, and sharers together in the promise in Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup> I became a servant of this gospel by the gift of God's grace given me through the working of his power. <sup>8</sup> Although I am less than the least of all the Lord's people, this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles the boundless riches of Christ, <sup>9</sup> and to make plain to everyone the administration of this mystery, which for ages past was kept hidden in God, who created all things. <sup>10</sup> His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms, <sup>11</sup> according to his eternal purpose that he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>12</sup> In him and through faith in him we may approach God with freedom and confidence.
